The First Decade: PathForward is Born

In this four-part series, we will travel through PathForward's history to learn how we became the organization we are today.

Initially established as A-SPAN, PathForward began in 1992. When PathForward's doors first opened, we were little more than an Emergency Winter Shelter. However, in just one decade, we grew to develop the

Feet on the Ground: Kenney Kluttz

Working on-site at PathForward's Sibert House, Kenney Kluttz is proud to offer his services as a Life Skills Coach to offer support to PathForward's most vulnerable clients. Sibert House is PathForward's own eight-unit apartment building in Arlington, where we provide housing to those who face the greatest barriers.

Homeless Bagged Meal Program, Street Outreach, and a Day Program. These programs have continued to serve PathForward clients to this day.

21 years ago, when Kenny first started at PathForward, he couldn't have imagined Sibert House, let alone everything else PathForward has become.

Kenney tells us, "Back then, there were only nine people on staff – and three were volunteers. It's hard to believe how much we've grown."

Black History Month, look no further than OAR. Established in 1974, OAR offers numerous levels of support to people impacted by the legal system while also focusing on Upstream work with the goal of confronting and dismantling racism. If you are seeking opportunities to explore racial justice and liberation for all, explore their "Undoing Racism" workshops.

We are proud to call OAR a partner and friend.

buds planted by Jennifer Horn and the Jennifer Horn Landscape Architecture team! The donated daffodils beautify the land around Sibert House and help make the building feel more like a home for PathForward's clients. PathForward is immensely grateful to Jennifer Horn and her team, and looks forward to seeing how the daffodils grow as the weather gets warmer.
